

Happy Independence Day

Katie Nielson and Cayla Blue battle it out July 2 at the Fitness and Sports Center with inflatable pugil sticks. The 49th Services Squadron provided Team Holloman members with different activities including a watermelon-eating contest, face painting and baton twirling.

Fireworks lit up the Holloman night sky July 2 in celebration of Independence Day. The fireworks, sponsored by Outdoor Recreation, cost $14,500 and lasted for 22 minutes.

Mrs. Laura Walton whips up cotton candy in the Fitness and Sports Center during Independence Day festivities July 2.

Photos by Mr. Tom Fuller

Mr. Jacob Padilla, 49th Services Squadron, paints American flags on the cheeks Kaleb Miller, 3, during Independence Day celebrations at the Fitness and Sports Center July 2.

Tops in Blue country singers got the crowd going with hit tunes July 2.

Photos by Airman 1st Class Stephen Collier

Airman 1st Class David Weaver brings down the house with a Swing-dance rendition July 2. Airman Weaver, a member of the Tops in Blue Air Force musical group, was joined with 30 other Airmen to celebrate Independence Day here.