FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Release No. 220322

March 23, 2022

More Performers Added to Holloman's 2022 Legacy of Liberty Air Show

HOLLOMAN AIR FORCE BASE, N.M. – The line-up of aerial performers at the 2022 Legacy of Liberty Air Show at Holloman Air Force Base May 7th and 8th will now include the A-10C Thunderbolt II Demonstration Team and a P-51 Heritage Flight flyover.

The P-51 Heritage Flight involves a flyover by a P-51, F-35, and A-10. The P-51 is a fighter bomber used during WWII, the Korean War, and other conflicts. The F-35A Lightning II is the U.S. Air Force's newest fifth-generation attack fighter. The A-10C Thunderbolt II is a twin-engine jet aircraft specially designed for close air support of ground forces that is used against all ground targets, including tanks and other armored vehicles.

The two-day event is open to the public and performances will be the same on Saturday and Sunday. General admission and general parking is free. The public will be able to drive onto the base through the West (Commercial) gate without a base pass and will be directed to designated parking areas. Shuttles will be available from the parking areas to the event entrance. Carpooling is highly recommended.

Some items will not be permitted on base so be sure to visit <https://www.holloman.af.mil/open-house> or <https://www.hollomanairshow.com> for more information. You can also find updates on the Holloman Air Force Base Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/HollomanAirForceBase/>
